The Small Business Authority Sponsors the Seventh Annual Small Business Summit

NEW YORK, Feb. 29, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Newtek Business Services, NASDAQ: NEWT, The Small Business Authority, will be exhibiting at The Seventh Annual Small Business Summit on March 6, 2012 at the Metropolitan Pavilion in New York City from 9:00 a.m. EST to 5:00 p.m. EST. The event is geared for small business owners who are looking to network and listen to informational seminars to learn how their small business can succeed. A variety of speakers will be present to discuss the following topics: cloud computing, social media, customer service and many other upcoming trends.

President and CEO, Barry Sloane said, "We look forward to participating in the upcoming Small Business Summit. This summit gives us a further opportunity to connect with our existing clientele as well as meet new business owners to help them grow their sales, reduce their costs and reduce their risks of doing business. It also allows us to exchange new ideas and information with those in the know and those on the edge of new business formation as well as product innovation. I hope to see many existing and new customers at our booth during the day."

Ramon Ray, Editor & Technology Evangelist, Smallbiztechnology.com said, "The Small Business Authority has been a leading advocate and resource for small businesses all over the country and in particular in the NY area, I'm honored to have their sponsorship of the 7th Annual Small Business Summit."
