- On September 28, 2022, the Company forecasted a fourth quarter 2022 cash distribution of $0.70 per share, which includes a spillover dividend of Company retained earnings in anticipation of the Company converting from a BDC and discontinuing its election to be regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, subject to Regulatory Approvals of the pending Acquisition and other conditions described in the Company's proxy statement filed with the SEC on May 2, 2022, after which the Company would no longer qualify as a regulated investment company ("RIC") for federal income tax purposes and will no longer qualify for accounting treatment as an investment company. This dividend is subject to Board approval.²
- If this fourth quarter 2022 distribution is declared by the Board, the Company expects to pay approximately $2.75 per share in cash dividends and distributions to shareholders in 2022.

Lending Highlights

- Newtek Small Business Finance, LLC ("NSBF") funded a record $223.0 million of SBA 7(a) loans during the three months ended September 30, 2022; a 36.0% increase over the $163.9 million of SBA 7(a) loans funded for the three months ended September 30, 2021.
- NSBF funded a record $586.9 million in SBA 7(a) loans for the nine months ended September 30, 2022, which represents an 61.9% increase over $362.6 million SBA 7(a) loan fundings for the nine months ended September 30, 2021.
- NSBF funded $64.1 million SBA 7(a) loans in October 2022.

- From January 1, 2022 through October 31, 2022, NSBF funded a record $650.9 million of SBA 7(a) loans; a 68.3% increase over $386.8 million of SBA 7(a) loans for the same period last year.
- NSBF increased its full year 2022 SBA 7(a) loan funding guidance to approximately $775 million, which would represent a 38.2% increase over $560.6 million of SBA 7(a) loans funded in 2021.
- Newtek Business Lending ("NBL"), a wholly owned portfolio company, closed $101.0 million of SBA 504 loans year-to-date through October 31, 2022; an increase of 22.6% over $82.4 million of SBA 504 loans closed during the same period in 2021.
- NBL forecasts closing approximately $150 million of SBA 504 loans for the full year 2022, which would represent a 66.5% increase over $90.1 million of SBA 504 closings in 2021.

Barry Sloane, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer said, "We are extremely proud of our results for the third quarter and first nine months of 2022. While 2022 has been challenging, due to the preparation for the repositioning of the Company in anticipation of converting to a bank holding company through the pending Acquisition of NBNYC, which remains subject to Regulatory Approvals; an increase in interest rates; and the impacts of inflation on our operating businesses as well as those of our clients, we are thrilled with the results we have been able to produce. We believe net investment income of $0.01 per share for the third quarter of 2022 exceeds analysts' consensus estimates of $(0.05) per share, and we believe our ANII for the third quarter 2022 of $0.62 per share, exceeds analysts' consensus estimates of $0.58 per share. We are pleased to have been able to beat analysts consensus estimates. In addition, it is important to remind our investor base that our results for the nine months ended September 30, 2022 compared to the same period in 2021, do not include the benefit of the extraordinary performance the Company had in funding loans under the PPP, which PPP fee income is non-recurring."

Commenting on Newtek's SBA 7(a) loan program Mr. Sloane said, "We had record SBA 7(a) loan fundings in the third quarter of 2022, which followed record SBA 7(a) fundings in the second quarter of 2022. In fact, year-to-date through October 31, 2022, we have funded a record $650.9 million in SBA 7(a) loans which represents a 68% increase over the $386.3 million SBA 7(a) loans funded for the same period last year. Furthermore, from January 1, 2022 through October 31, 2022, we funded a total of 1,037 SBA 7(a) loan units, which represents an 86% increase over the 557 SBA 7(a) loan units for the same period last year. With our strong SBA 7(a) funding performance thus far this year, coupled with the fact that there is less than two months left in 2022, we are raising our full year 2022 SBA 7(a) loan funding guidance to $775 million. In addition, with these record fundings, it is important to note that that the Company has been mindful in tightening its credit standards as evidenced by the weighted average FICO score in NSBF's most recent securitization, which equaled 725 on its guarantors versus a weighted average FICO score of 704 in our SBA 7(a) loan portfolio at December 31, 2021."

Mr. Sloane continued, "The Company also anticipates NBL closing a record number of SBA 504 loans in the fourth quarter of 2022 and achieving record SBA 504 loan closings of $150 million for the full year of 2022. The performance of NBL's SBA 504 and non-conforming conventional loan program demonstrates the ability to acquire, assemble, underwrite, fund, and manage loans of all sizes, types and credit quality among the Company's independent business owner client base. NBL's SBA 504 loan program, which has originated $388.4 million of SBA 504 loans since 2017, has not experienced any charge offs or defaults. In addition, we have originated $132.5 million in non-conforming conventional loans since the inception of the program in 2019, and have not experienced any charge offs or defaults. Furthermore, during the third quarter of 2022, the Company entered into a new joint venture agreement with a $15 billion asset management company to provide up to $100 million of equity capital to fund non-conforming conventional loans. Additionally, the joint venture is preparing to close on a $150 million leverage facility from a well-known investment bank. We believe we will be able to fund $600 million of non-conforming conventional loans in 2023 and over $1.0 billion non-conforming conventional loans in 2024, which will be part of our forecasts going forward."

Mr. Sloane further commented, "We also are pleased that, despite turbulent market conditions, our wholly-owned controlled portfolio companies, Newtek Merchant Solutions and Newtek Technology Solutions, are expected to generate approximately a combined $20 million of EBITDA in 2023. The Company, during this transformative period of anticipating conversion from a BDC to a bank holding company, has been limited in its ability to forecast future earnings and dividends beyond 2022 due to the pending Acquisition of NBNYC. We are reaffirming our forecast for a fourth quarter 2022 distribution of $0.70 per share, which would bring total cash dividends and distributions for 2022 to $2.75 per share. The fourth quarter 2022 forecasted distribution of $0.70 per share, which includes a spillover dividend of Company retained earnings in anticipation of the Company converting from a BDC, is expected to be paid on or about December 31, 2022."

Discussing rising interest rates, Mr. Sloane concluded, "We have been asked regularly how increases in interest rates affect our business model. We believe that anyone stating that rising interest rates is good for business is not giving the full picture. In our case, we believe that we are well positioned as our floating rate SBA 7(a) loan portfolio primarily adjusts at Prime plus 275 basis points without a cap; moreover, new SBA 7(a) loan originations will be at Prime plus 300 basis points in accordance with new SBA rules. Prime is currently at 7.00%, however based on the SOFR futures market, we believe Prime will increase by an additional 50 basis points in December, and as such it's likely our SBA 7(a) portfolio will adjust to a 10% to 10.5% coupon in January 2023. We believe converting to a bank holding company and owning a bank will carve out an attractive future for us as it will enable us to finance our growth with core deposits. We look forward to the possible Regulatory Approvals of the Acquisition in the fourth quarter of 2022. Once we have a clear path to converting to a bank holding company, we anticipate forecasting earnings as a bank holding company for the next 24 months."

¹Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures - Newtek Business Services Corp. and Subsidiaries

In evaluating its business, Newtek considers and uses ANII as a measure of its operating performance. ANII includes short-term capital gains from the sale of the guaranteed portions of SBA 7(a) loans and conventional loans, and beginning in 2016, capital gain distributions from controlled portfolio companies, which are reoccurring events. The Company defines ANII as net investment income (loss) plus net realized gains recognized from the sale of guaranteed portions of SBA 7(a) loan investments, less realized losses on non-affiliate investments, plus the net realized gains on controlled investments, plus or minus the change in fair value of contingent consideration liabilities, plus loss on extinguishment of debt, plus or minus an adjustment for gains or losses on derivative transactions.

We do not designate derivatives as hedges to qualify for hedge accounting and therefore any net payments under, or fluctuations in the fair value of, our derivatives are recognized currently in our GAAP income statement. However, fluctuations in the fair value of the related assets are not included in our income statement. We consider the gain or loss on our hedging positions related to assets that we still own as of the reporting date to be "open hedging positions." While recognized for GAAP purposes, we exclude the results on the hedges from ANII until the related asset is sold and/or the hedge position is "closed," whereupon they would then be included in ANII in that period. These are reflected as "adjustment for realized gain/(loss) on derivatives" for purposes of computing ANII for the period. Management believes that excluding these specifically identified gains and losses associated with the open hedging positions adjusts for timing differences between when we recognize changes in the fair values of our assets and changes in the fair value of the derivatives used to hedge such assets.

The term ANII is not defined under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, or U.S. GAAP, and is not a measure of operating income, operating performance or liquidity presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. ANII has limitations as an analytical tool and, when assessing the Company's operating performance, investors should not consider ANII in isolation, or as a substitute for net investment income, or other consolidated income statement data prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Among other things, ANII does not reflect the Company's actual cash expenditures. Other companies may calculate similar measures differently than Newtek, limiting their usefulness as comparative tools. The Company compensates for these limitations by relying primarily on its GAAP results supplemented by ANII. Reconciliation tables showing the adjustments made to net investment income to determine NII are attached to this press release.

² Note Regarding Dividend Payments

Amount and timing of dividends, if any, remain subject to the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. The Company's Board of Directors expects that it will maintain its status as a BDC and regulated investment company ("RIC") in the near term, and therefore expects to maintain a dividend policy with the objective of making quarterly distributions in an amount that approximates 90 - 100% of the Company's annual taxable income. The determination of the tax attributes of the Company's distributions is made annually as of the end of the Company's fiscal year based upon its taxable income for the full year and distributions paid for the full year.
