Newtek Business Services Co-Founder Jeffrey Rubin Resigns

NEW YORK, Mar 7, 2008 (PrimeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- Newtek Business Services, Inc. (Nasdaq:NEWT) (www.newtekbusinessservices.com), a provider of business services and financial products to the small- and medium-sized business market, announced today that Jeffrey Rubin, co-founder of Newtek Business Services, Inc., has resigned as President and a Director of the Company to pursue personal and professional business interests. Mr. Rubin's resignation is effective today. Mr. Rubin will continue his relationship with Newtek as a consultant to the Company, and currently remains Newtek's second largest shareholder. The Company does not have plans to replace his position or the office of President at this time.

Jeffrey Rubin, co-founder of Newtek Business Services, Inc. said, "I feel proud and extremely fortunate to have been part of building what Newtek has become, and attribute its success to the relentless work of management, and all the employees. It is because of the quality of people now ingrained in the organization, that I know the best is yet come for Newtek Business Services, and I look forward to seeing the Company reach its potential."

Barry Sloane, chairman and chief executive officer of Newtek Business Services, Inc. said, "I am sorry to announce that Jeff Rubin, my friend and co-founder of Newtek, has resigned. While he will be sorely missed, we look forward to continuing our relationship with Jeff on a different level, as a consultant and advisor to Newtek. Jeff has signed a one-year consulting agreement and will continue to assist Newtek, offering his expertise and broad-based knowledge as we continue to grow the Company."

Mr. Sloane continued, "I want to thank Jeff for his extraordinary contribution to the amazing progress Newtek has experienced over his 10-year tenure, and wish him all the best in his future endeavors."
