Geraldo Rivera And Monica Crowley Will Be Featured On The Small Business Authority Hour

The Show will air on June 2, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. EDT on 77WABC and wabcradio.com
Hosted by Barry Sloane

NEW YORK, May 24, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Newtek Business Services, NASDAQ: NEWT, The Small Business Authority, announced today its next live radio broadcast with two exciting talk show hosts from 77WABC, Geraldo Rivera and Monica Crowley, to discuss their views on whether Barack Obama or Mitt Romney would be better for small business. The show will be hosted from "The Small Business Authority Studio" at 77WABC Radio in New York. National listeners can also tune in at www.wabcradio.com and click listen live. The program, The Small Business Authority Hour, will be broadcast on Saturday, June 2, 2012 at 4:00 p.m. EDT.

The show is dedicated to independent business owners across the United States and The Small Business Authority's goal is to educate listeners on how to grow their sales, reduce their expenses and minimize risks in running their small businesses.

President and CEO, Barry Sloane said, "We are thrilled to have two of the most informed authorities on politics and policy join in The Small Business Authority Hour for our next show. The upcoming presidential election is viewed as the election of the century, given the philosophical and political shift of the Obama administration from the recent eight Bush administration years. We will be discussing with our experts the effects of choosing Obama or Romney on our:

- | Growth in job creation
- | Growth in GDP
- | Immigration policy
- | Growth in the size of government and national debt
- | The importance of social issues vs. economic issues

Our guests will also emphasize the importance of all of these issues effecting small to medium-sized independent business owners across America. We welcome all to tune in to The Small Business Authority Hour."

The show will be hosted by Barry Sloane, President and CEO of Newtek Business Services, Inc. and co-hosted by Laura Smith from 77WABC. The Small Business Authority Hour is broadcast from the Small Business Authority Studios atop Madison Square Garden the first Saturday of every month at 4:00 p.m. EDT. We will take live questions from independent business owners beginning at 4:15 p.m. EDT until the show ends at 5:00 p.m. EDT. Please feel free to email info@thesba.com for any questions or send us a message direct on twitter, The SBA.
